diversity award nomination form

According to the bylaws of the BMDC, the mission of the Coalition is:

- to serve as a catalyst for one community living in harmony, where diverse, independent leaders create understanding, justice and unity through honest dialogue, principled advocacy and courageous engagement on issues related to human dignity and equality;
- to create systematic, constructive dialogue among broadly-representative leaders to build community, consensus and action agenda on issues related to the Birmingham metro area’s growing diversity; and,
- to provide appropriate support for the missions and activities of its member organizations.

To that end, the [name of award] seeks to honor individuals, institutions or organizations within the Birmingham metropolitan area whose contributions/works/initiatives best represent the mission of the BMDC. If you are nominating someone (or an organization) for this award, please provide supporting documentation that will help to substantiate and enhance your nomination choice for review by the BMDC Awards Committee
